ALIST of the Honourable Company's Civil and Military Servants was printed by Messrs. Stuart and Cooper about the Middle of last Year, and became, from various alterations in the Establishment, at that time, not so correct as they wished it to be.—It was therefore suppressed, rather than impose it upon their subscribers or the public.—So much of it as was printed (except such parts as were cancelled) is now given, to any gentleman, gratis.—It, however, contains some points of useful information, such as The List of Minor Cadets, who have since that period been struck off the Establishment, &c. &c.

To compile and print Lists of such a complex nature, free from error, to so late a period as the first of this month, is scarcely possible; yet there will appear very few in the following sheets: some, however, there are in it, which we shall point out; and others may have escaped us.

In page 3 of the Military List, line 8, Major E. Roberts's name is inserted by mistake, which is, however, corrected in the List of Majors on Furlough, page 25, line 12, and in the Alphabetical List.

Captain John Rotton's name, page 5, line 36, is erroneously inserted John Pattan, but corrected in the Alphabetical List.

ADVERTISEMENT.

Captain Denty's name is omitted in its proper place; the omission is, however, rectified in the Alphabetical List, where his rank in the army and in the infantry appear.

In page 7, line 1, Lieut. J. Stephenson is inserted as an Infantry officer, when he should have been marked as an Invalid; this is also amended in the Alphabetical List.

Lieut. J. Gascoyne having been reported dead in some of the public prints, his name was omitted in its proper place, but inserted in a note, page 18.

Alexander Caldwell, Lieutenant Fireworker of Artillery, page 20, line 38, is inserted Engin. — This is also corrected in the Alphabetical List.

David Cummings, Esq. lately returned to the Civil Service, has been, by mistake, omitted in the Civil List.

These, and any other errors which may appear, upon a more minute revision, shall be carefully corrected in the next edition.
